

“Movement or Monument”

Nehemiah 12:1-26 (NIV)

Introduction: “The Church is to be a living, vital representation of the reality of Christ. Today we want to talk about how we can ensure that happens. What it takes for the Church today to truly be a movement that radically effects the present and the future, instead of a monument that brings memories of the past, but has little relevance to the now.”

1. Comparison

2. Components

3. Consequences